Piano-Forte Recital.
 In compliance with an indispensable requirement for graduation from the Central College School of Music, Miss Margaret Aull gave the following choice programme at the New Grand opera house last Monday evening:

- I. Sonata, F. Minor. Beethoven
 - a. Allegro.
 - b. Adagio.
 - c. Allegretto (Minuetto.)
 - d. Prestissimo.
- II.
 - a. Moment Musical. Schubert
 - b. Nachstueck, F. Major. Schumann
 - c. Etincelles. Moszkowski
- III.
 - a. Prelude, G. Major. Chopin
 - b. Nocturne, E. Flat. Chopin
 - c. Toccata, C. Minor. Chaminade
 - d. Air de Ballet, Op. 41. Chaminade
- IV.
 - a. Etude Mignonne. Schuett
 - b. Romance Sans Paroles. St. Saens
 - c. Valse Brillant. Gullit

The selections covering classical and modern composers presented contrasting schools of composition in such a manner that the programme proceeded with increasing interest.

Miss Aull played entirely from memory and each number was followed by hearty applause. The Beethoven Sonata was most effectively done and the Adagio was given with a grace and beauty that was nothing less than charming. To particularize the Song Without Words by St. Saens and the Nocturne by Chopin were soulfully rendered and the Air de Ballet by Chaminade was fanciful and fascinating. After each group Miss Aull was the recipient of the choicest flowers as expressions of the esteem in which she and her playing are held.

The recital was a success in every way and the young lady is deserving of the highest congratulations upon her attainments as a pianiste.

Not Held for Murder.
 William Means, late of Mayview, who killed his niece, Miss Lydia Means, at Henrietta, Indian Territory, and then gave himself up to the authorities, was released on a charge of murder at a preliminary examination. It developed that Means acted in self defense. He is held there, however, under bond, on a charge of incest.

It is said that before Means killed his niece she had succeeded in breaking one of his arms and inflicting a wound upon him with a knife.

Mr. Means was in Lexington Monday.

To the Public.
 Having concluded to retire from business on account of failing health, I offer my stock of goods, consisting of everything carried in a first-class harness shop for sale, if a person wants the whole of it at first cost, otherwise, I will sell goods at reduced prices.

Parties knowing themselves indebted please call and settle. Will rent the store to parties who want to buy the entire stock which is the best stand in town for this business.

The house of Miles Washington, a colored man, at Myrick, was burned Monday. Part of the household goods were saved.

Peculiar To Itself

In what it is and what it does—containing the best blood-purifying, alterative and tonic substances and affecting the most radical and permanent cures of all humors and all eruptions, relieving weak, tired, languid feelings, and building up the whole system—is true only of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

No other medicine acts like it; no other medicine has done so much real, substantial good, no other medicine has restored health and strength at so little cost.

"I was troubled with scrofula and came near losing my eyesight. For four months I could not see to do anything. After taking two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I could see to walk, and when I had taken eight bottles I could see as well as ever." STUBB A. HAINKEL, Withers, N. C.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

Extracts From the Lexington Caucasian, April 23, 1870.

Charity.—Judge Burden has some five or six hundred bushels of fine potatoes, on his place in the suburbs, which he will give to the poor of the city, who will call there for them. This is real charity.

Parents, Look to Your Sons.—The windows in the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches, and private houses also, have all recently been fired into by boys who use slings, loaded with shot; and as we have no police to look after such matters, we hope that parents will look to it that their sons are not allowed to carry these mischievous pocket bedevils. It is a heavy fine for breaking glasses thus; and we trust that if it is not stopped, offenders may be ferreted out and punished. We notice, also, on our pavements, many words, written in chalk, by the boys, that had better be stopped now.

Fire.—The residence of Gen. Jo. O. Sheby, eight miles southeast of this city, was discovered to be on fire, on Wednesday afternoon last, and was totally consumed, the furniture alone being saved. The fire is said to have originated from a defective floor. The house was insured in the Aetna, E. Winsor & Son, agents, $3,000. The general was in town at the time of the fire, but hastened home immediately and as rapidly as possible. We hope he will not be discouraged by it; indeed we feel that he will not, for it is only a small loss compared with others that he, in his eventful life, has been called on to submit to; but that, in his usual energetic style, he will rise superior to it.

Keller.—Philip Keller is again off East, for goods, in the line of clothing. This is doing pretty well, being a second or third trip for goods, and we are told will buy a large stock, running through all that is kept in the clothing line. He has taken with him—in his mind's eye—the measure of us all, and will suit each to coat, pants and vest, and all the furnishing stock of such a store, and has made his arrangements to sell them at such figure as will astonish all "de babies." Look out for Philip. He will be here with all his fine goods very soon, when he will be prepared to see his friends and the public, and serve them with the latest and best styles.

MARRIAGES.
 Near Mayview, in this county, at the residence of the bride's father, April 19th, by Rev. J. A. Quarles, Thomas W. Beattie and Miss Helen, daughter of Col. David Clarkson, late of Charleston, Va.
 Dollar received.

Near Rochester, Indiana, on the 5th inst., at the residence of William Moore, Esq., by the Rev. Mr. Stringer, James A. Fishback, of this city, to Miss Mary J. Moore, of Rochester.

We have heard of marriage on first sight, of marriage for love, of marriage for convenience, of marriage per force, of marriage without it, of marriage by telegraph, of marriage by proxy, and of marriage by elopement, and almost any other way, but it is left to the invention of Daguerre to add a marriage through the influence of photographs, as accomplished in this case. We are told the happy couple never met until their nuptial day, except as stated. Good luck as any. May happiness follow them down to old age.

DEATHS.
 In this city, on the 17th inst., Joseph M. Crisman, aged 3 years.

In this county, on the 8th inst., Thomas Kennedy, aged 56 years.

Alas! Alas! Thomas, thou art gone from our presence, but your kind, noble and generous heart, your hospitable and social nature, have made an indelible impression upon all that knew you. Fare thee well, your friends will soon follow.
